[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., July 15.—Judge W. M. Bond, in the Supreme Court this afternoon, ruled in favor of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, and against the State and the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League in the noted case of State vs. Seaboard Air Line, involving the right of railroad companies to refuse to submit their books on deliveries of intoxicating liquors to inspection of citizens generally.

The case was provided for in the State statutes setting up machinery for the enforcement of the prohibition law.

The Seaboard had been indicted for refusal to allow Superintendent R. L. Davis, of the State Anti-Saloon League, to inspect the records of deliveries at the freight depot of the Seaboard here, counsel for the Seaboard contending that to do so would violate regulations for interstate commerce.

The State and the Anti-Saloon League gave notice of appeal, and the case now goes to the Supreme Court of the State and on up to the United States Supreme Court.

PEDAL EXTREMITIES (Otherwise Legs)

EVEN the lady in the picture (old fashioned though she be) had them; now-a-days it is quite the customary thing—we make no bones about it—a leg is a leg—"Limbs" are no longer fashionable.

Consider for a moment the way we clothe our legs. The lady in the picture no doubt wore stockings of silk, but how vastly different from silks as we know them to-day. Museums of antiquities show us crudely manufactured affairs—that sold at fabulous prices—quite at variance with the product of our modern wizardry.

"Esco" Boot Silk Hose, with deep lisle garter top, heavy reinforced heel and toe, in all colors—bronze, purple, navy, Copenhagen, emerald, mahogany, Nell rose, gold, pink, sky, tan and in black and white. A standard hose worthy its trademarked name. Quality at all times guaranteed the same. Many women wear no other at any time or occasion, asserting "Esco" good enough. Why don't you try them to-day.....50c
